

The Book

INSIGHT – Understanding your Motivational Gifts

This 260 + page book is filled with insightful, personal stories and great resource materials about motivational gifts. The author, Alex Bricker, learned firsthand how understanding his motivational gifts brought clarity to his life after taking the MGM*.

Alex, a graduate of Denver Seminary, has written this book with a captivating personal style that is easy to read.

In addition to the personal stories, Alex unpacks the concepts and practical application of understanding our God given gifts, making this book a must read for anybody who takes the MGM* assessment.

This book is also a valuable resource for anybody in ministry or business who wants to have a deeper understanding of others.
